PUBLIC LIBRARY OF VICTORIA
8 FEB 1915

The Queenslander Pictorial.

THROUGH THE YARRAMAN SCRUBS

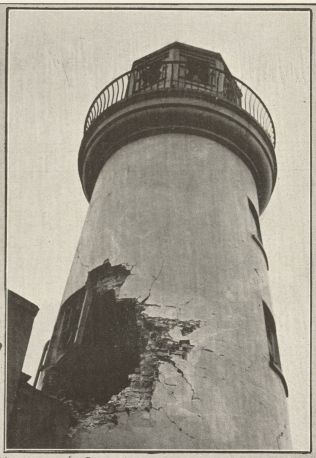

C.E.S. FRYER - PHOTO

The December Raid.

Result of German Shells at Scarborough and West Hartlepool.

House in Wykeham Street, Scarborough, where four people were killed.

CENTRAL NEWS PHOTO. Lighthouse of Scarborough Harbour pierced by shell.

Roof of the Grand Hotel, Scarborough. (Persons occupied the rooms only thirty minutes prior to the bombardment.)

The bottom of Dean St., W. Hartlepool. At this point seven people lost their lives.

Wrecked dwellings at West Hartlepool.

The Baptist Church, W. Hartlepool, after the bombardment.

WITH THE AUSTRALIANS IN EGYPT.

AUSTRALIANS IN CAMP AT MENA, THE PYRAMIDS.

AUSTRALIAN TROOPS IN CAMP. THE CROWD ON THE HILLSIDE ARE COLLECTING WHITE STONES TO MARK THE VARIOUS CAMP BOUNDARIES.
—Photos lent by Mr. C. A. Bernays.

Third Reinforcements Ninth Infantry.

Reinforcements for Queensland Contingent.

Third Reinforcements for the Queensland Contingent

TALMA. PHOTO.

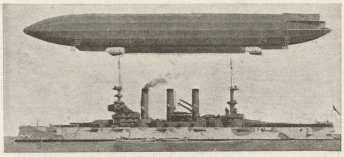

A BRITISH RECRUITING POSTER.

Posters are issued in the British Islands by various organisations formed to stimulate recruiting. This is a fac simile of a poster displayed on behalf of the Parliamentary Recruiting Committee.

AEROPLANES OR BIRDS?

On many occasions since the outbreak of war persons in various parts of Queensland have declared that they saw aeroplanes and airships manoeuvring in the evening sky. It is significant that these "appearances" have occurred in nearly every instance about dusk or soon after. This picture of a flight of pelicans (reproduced from "L'Illustration") suggests the possibility of a belated bird being mistaken for an aeroplane.

THE MAGNITUDE OF THE ZEPPELIN.

The great size of a German airship is shown by this illustration (from the "Scientific American") of a Zeppelin side by side with a battleship. It is conceivable that such a huge structure would form a comparatively easy mark for expert gunners; and an aeroplane could scarcely be mistaken for a Zeppelin by any one who had seen both forms of aircraft.

THE NEW DUNDARRAH CHEESE FACTORY, COALSTOUN LAKES, RECENTLY OPENED.

—Ada C. Bott photo.

THE NEW "CARNEGIE" ORGAN AT THE CITY TABERNACLE, DEDICATED LAST SUNDAY.

The City Tabernacle, the leading Baptist Church in Brisbane, has just opened a fine new organ, installed at a cost of £1200, of which £500 was granted by the Carnegie Trust. The instrument is blown by a rotary blower driven by an electric motor. The scaling of the pipes was specially adapted to the requirements of the building. The pitch is French diapason normal. This is the only organ in Queensland tuned to that pitch, which is the same as that used by Madame Melba.

—King Arnold photo.

IN SUNNY EGYPT.

THE ROAD FROM CAIRO TO THE PYRAMIDS.
Rome, it is said, was not built in a day, but this fine road over the desert, 10 miles long, was made in three days and nights by 100,000 fellaheen, or native Egyptian labourers.

PANORAMA FROM THE GREAT PYRAMID OF CHEOPS.
View from the top of the first Pyramid (Cheops). The camp of the Australians is now established under the shadow of the Great Pyramid of Cheops, and those of the troops who have sufficient energy would enjoy this view. The picture was taken in the season when the Nile overflows its banks, even to the foot of the Pyramids.

"HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN."
One of the two great statues of Rameses II. at Bedrashein. Lord Kitchener, some time back, decided to bring in these statues and erect them on the station square at Cairo. The cost of transfer and erection was estimated at £10,000, but the project had to be shelved in consequence of the tightness of the Egyptian Exchequer. A generous American has since come forward, and offered £1000 to start a subscription list for the purpose of transporting and erecting one of the statues.

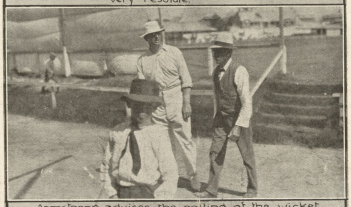

INTERSTATE CRICKET.
VICTORIA V. QUEENSLAND.

Ranigan and Shepherd open the second innings.

Warwick Armstrong leads the Victorians, very resolute.

Armstrong advises the rolling of the wicket.

Queensland takes the field.

M'Andrews receives the glad hand of Farquhar.

Park and Ryder, who held the wicket for Victoria, till the required 49 was hoisted. LANGDON, PHOTO.